The Western and Central Pacific Ocean (WCPO), contributes almost 60% of the global harvest of tuna species, making the Pacific region the heart of the tuna industry. The biannual Pacific Tuna Forum is the platform for all stakeholders to keep abreast of the latest management and sustainability initiatives, and to be informed of investment opportunities in the region. The 7th Pacific Tuna Forum (PTF 2019) will take place in Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea, from 12-13 September 2019.

The Forum

PTF 2019 will review the status of the tuna stocks in the WCPO; recent developments in management regime and policies; current trends in tuna trade and markets; recent developments in processing and technology; investment opportunities for small and medium scale entrepreneurs; eco labelling and social responsibility issues.

The Organisers

PTF 2019 is jointly organised by INFOFISH and the National Fisheries Authority (NFA) of Papua New Guinea.

Venue and Hotel Accommodation

The Pacific Tuna Forum 2019 will be held at Hilton Port Moresby. It is situated in Wards Road, Hohola, Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea.

Hilton Port Moresby is a hotel in Hohola showcasing the lifestyle and heritage of Papua New Guinea. Connected via walkway to the Kutubu Convention Centre, the hotel is in the government district and a 10-minute drive from Jacksons International Airport.

Travel Arrangements and Visa Requirements

Visas can be obtained from the nearest PNG diplomatic mission and embassy office stationed abroad.

Visa on arrival is only available to eligible foreign nationals and under specific circumstances at Port Moresby's Jacksons International Airport and Tokua (Rabaul) International Airport. More details are available from <http://www.immigration.gov.pg/visa/visa-all/34-general-information-for-intending-visitors.html>
